Position Title: Academicus Camp Assistant – entry level position

Camp dates:

FEB: 12-16.02

APR: 22-26.04

At Academicus Camps, the Camp Assistant is so vital for the campers' boutique experience with us. We are looking for assistants who are powerhouses: enthusiastic go-getters, and movers and shakers, who love being with children and are responsible & reliable help for the Camp Leaders. You have a lot of positive energy & enthusiasm, are friendly & fun and love to show initiative, when working in the camp environment. Our camp kids love coming to you for help and guidance and the Camp Leader knows you can support leading the group of children aged 5-10yrs old.

Key Duties:

- Supports Camp Leader with the implementation of successful Camp Days: during the indoors morning activities and during the outdoors program
- Actively participates in planned activities during Camp Days which include team building activities, sports games, music time, storytelling, crafts activities, etc.
- Performs needed tasks to ensure the camp days run smoothly and camp participants are safe and happy & supports with Camp Days set-up and clean-up
- Is a friendly face and guide to each individual
- Is responsible for the use & maintenance of all equipment & materials needed for daily activities
- Monitors and provides care for the children participating in the camp program
- Acts as a positive role model and leader at all times
- Builds positive relationships with camp staff, participants and parents and/or caregivers
- Documents Camp Days by taking photos and video recordings throughout the day
- Follows all policies and procedures as required.

Personal requirements / characteristics:

You enjoy working with children aged 5-10yrs and are able to establish a good rapport with them right from the start. You show enthusiasm for participating in camp activities and take initiative in leading some of the activities, which provides support for the Camp Leader.

Our camp provides an incredible opportunity for you to discover new talents, interests, and hands on experience in working with children and other staff members. You also get the unique chance to discover Zurich and its surroundings, which excites & motivates you to bring you're a-game every day of the camp. You are enthusiastic, responsible and reliable – a true role-model for our camp participants.

You are energetic and enjoy participating in sports activities and being active with the children throughout the day.

You are a native speaker of English / or are fluent with C2 level of English.

Is a resident of Switzerland.

Remuneration:

- Meals & snacks included
- Entrance / admissions / equipment relating to all activities in which you support the Camp Leader
- Competitive starting salary with opportunity to develop and work towards becoming a Camp Leader
- Signature programme provided
- Excellent opportunity for caregivers with children aged 5-10yrs, as the child would be able to join camp activities – subject to negotiation.

Please submit your CV with a short explanation why you would be the best candidate to join our amazing boutique camp experience to: atelier@academicus.co
